

About Avi

Avi Liran (CSP) is Global Chief Delighting Officer and energetic motivational speaker who goes above and beyond to deliver tangible results to organisations. As the embodiment of Contagious Positivity, he's celebrated for leading businesses toward profitability with a smile. Avi's approach is a masterclass in how to reshape the very core of a business with delightful mindsets, particularly through joy and appreciation in the workplace. This transformation creates the contagious positivity that leads to significant improvements in performance, employee wellbeing and customer satisfaction.

Having helped many Fortune 500 companies achieve profound transformations, Avi's philosophy is simple: delight your people, and they will delight your customers. This contagious wave of positivity is the secret ingredient to a thriving business environment, one that Avi has successfully instilled in organisations worldwide. Through his engaging, heartfelt and dynamic speaking style, Avi ignites long-lasting change, one keynote, one workshop at a time.

With Avi, you don't just gain a motivational speaker; you gain a transformational leader and partner in building a business that champions employee and customer delight as the pathway to greater profits and sustained growth. Engage Avi and spark Contagious Positivity in your organisation today.

